

Postgressql Lab01

Note: Save each Assignment in a file with name (day number-assignment number)

Day 1

Assignments

1. Display the last name concatenated with the job id, separated by a comma and space and name the column [Employee and Title] as alias
2. Display the last name and salary for all employees whose salary is not in the range of $1500 and $7000.
3. Display the last name, salary and commission for all employees who earn commissions, Sort data in descending order of salary and commissions.
4. Display the last name, job id and salary for all employees whose job id is SA_REP or PU_MAN and their salary is not equal to $9500, $9000 or $8000
5. Display all information about employees whose last name begin with letter 'S' or letter 's'
6. Display all employees whose first name contains letter before last 'e' or 'E'

DDLs

1. Create table with name of emps based on employees table (with no data)- populate the emps table using a select statement from the employees table for the employees in department 20.
 - Add column Gender to table emps. (int), default 0 ; add comment on column (0 stands for Male, 1 stands for Female)
2. Create the DEPTS table based on the following table instance chart.
Create table with 2 columns

COLUMN NAME	ID	NAME
DATATYPE	Serial	Varchar
LENGTH		100

- Populate the DEPTS table with data from departments table. Include only columns that you need. (insert using sub query)

2. Create table employee_bkp based on the structure of the employees table(Structure with data).

Include only the employee_id, last_name, email, salary and department_id columns

DMLs

- 1- Insert new location with suitable data
- 2- Insert new department with suitable data for this location
- 3- Insert new employee with suitable data for this department
- 4- Update your salary + 4000, update your job_id to have the same job_id for employee no. 107, update your phone_number to null
- 5- Be sure to Delete the created location